

Media giant Pappas has announced it will give away $325,000 of airtime to GOP candidates. This is clearly partisan use of the public's airwaves and the FCC should step in and prevent this action.